

Bhonsala Adventure Sports Festival-2025

The primary objective of the Bhonsala Adventure Sports Festival-2025 is to promote various types of adventure sports. It is understood that the Adventure Sports are not competitive. Even though some sports are organised at basic level in competitive format just to encourage participation and create awareness.

All the adventurer sports will be organised with due safety precautions and under the supervision of qualified adventurer enthusiasts.

Adventure Festival Week – General Rules & Regulations

1. Eligibility & Registration

1.1. Age Groups

- Category A: 12–17 years (must provide medical fitness certificate)
 - Category B: 18–35 years (must provide medical fitness certificate)
 - Category C: 36–65 years (must provide medical fitness certificate)
-

1.2. Registration

- Participants must complete registration forms, submit ID proof, and sign the indemnity Form.
 - Entry fees must be paid in advance; no on-the-spot registrations allowed.
-

1.3. Medical Fitness

- Mandatory submission of a fitness certificate from a certified medical practitioner.
 - Any chronic illness, recent surgery, or injury must be disclosed.
-

2. General Conduct

- Respect for nature and fellow participants is mandatory.
- Littering, damaging flora/fauna, or misconduct towards staff or other participants may lead to disqualification.
- Alcohol, recreational drugs, or performance-enhancing substances are strictly prohibited.
- Safety gear (life jackets) provided by organizers must be worn at rafting.

Timing will be taken at the check point after four team members arrive.

3. Equipment & Gear

- Organizers' Equipment: Rafts, ropes, bouldering mats, and obstacle course setups will be provided where applicable.
 - Personal Gear: Participants are responsible for their own shoes, gloves, hydration packs, and clothing.
 - Any modification of provided equipment without approval will result in penalties.
-

4. Event-Specific Rules

Competition Sports

4.1. Tri-Venture (Trekking, Rafting, Mountain Cycling)

- Teams of 4 members must compete in all three disciplines.
 - Timing from each discipline will be combined to calculate total performance.
 - Mechanical issues during cycling must be resolved by the team itself (self-supported).
 - Transition zones time between events must be within the limit communicated by the organizing team before event. Exceeding time incurs penalties.
 - The rules applicable for Mountain cycling, Rafting & Trekking event mentioned below are applicable for respective event in tri-venture.
 - “If a team does not complete the first event within the given time, they will be disqualified for the next event.”
-

4.2. Mountain Cycling

- Helmets are mandatory.
 - Drafting behind vehicles is prohibited.
 - Any shortcuts or deviation from the marked trail results in disqualification.
 - Riders must yield to overtaking competitors on narrow paths.
-

4.3. Trekking

- Trekkers must stick to designated trails
- Any shortcuts or deviation from the marked trail results in disqualification.
- Any reckless behavior will attract disqualification.

4.4. Rafting

- Life jackets are mandatory.
- Teams must stay in their assigned rafts; switching is not allowed.
- Intentional capsizing or rough play is prohibited.

- In case of a flip, all team members must account for one another before proceeding.
-

4.5. Bouldering

- Each climber gets two attempts per problem.
 - Completing designated boulder route within given time will be counted & deviation from the route will be penalised
 - Time limits per problem will be enforced.
-

4.6. Rope & Obstacle Course

- Touching marked “out-of-bounds” areas incurs penalties.
 - Skipping any obstacle results in a penalty or disqualification.
-

Non-Competition Sports on introductory format.

5.1. Parasailing

- Participants must follow the instructor’s directions.
 - If participant unable to follow the direction of instructor correctly by any reason they will be disqualified for taking flight.
-

5.2. River Sailing

- Life jacket is required.
 - Sail boats are powered with the wind so sailing will be dependable on the weather conditions.
 - Beginners must attend the orientation session.
-

5.3. Scuba Diving

- Beginners must undergo introductory training
 - Participants must follow the instructor’s directions.
 - If participant unable to follow the direction of instructor correctly by any reason they will be disqualified for taking part in scuba diving.
-

5.4. Rifle Shooting

- Beginners must undergo introductory training
- Participants must follow the instructor’s directions.
- If participant unable to follow the direction of instructor correctly by any reason they will be disqualified for taking part in rifle shooting.

5. Environmental Responsibility

- Use only eco-friendly materials for personal use
 - Follow Leave No Trace principles at all times.
-

6. Timing & Penalties

- Late starts may not be compensated.
 - Minor or Major Violation attract to appropriate penalties.
 - Appeals against penalties must be lodged in writing with appellate committee. Their decision will be final and binding.
-

7. Safety & Emergency Procedures

- Participants must assist fellow competitors in distress and report accidents immediately.
 - Any unforeseen situation may result in event suspension or rerouting.
-

8. Prizes & Recognition

- Tri-Venture rankings will be based on cumulative performance across all three activities.
 - Ranking of all competitive team sports will be based on cumulative performance of respective sports.
 - Separate awards for each group & gender categories.
 - Certificates of participation for all finishers.
-

9. Liability

- The organizers are not responsible for injuries, equipment loss, or accidents caused by negligence or rule violation or by any other reasons.
 - By registering, participants accept all risks inherent in adventure sports.
-

10. Judge

- ✓ “An Adventure Festival Judge Panel will be appointed to resolve problems and queries; of the participants following fair decision-making practice. Their decision shall be final and binding on all participants.”
-